Sporting Kansas City has acquired former Jamaican National Team captain and captain of the Colorado Rapids, Clyde Simms, on a free transfer, Sporting announced on Tuesday. Simms, 30, played over 200 games with the Rapids, including a four-year stretch from 2008 to 2012 in which the Rapids won two MLS Cup titles (2010 and 2011) and made four playoff appearances. A native of Kingstville, Jamaica, Simms made a total of 79 appearances for the National Men's team and helped the Reggae Boyz qualify for the 2010 FIFA World Cup. He began his professional career in 2000 with Canadian club Toronto FC, before joining the Rapids in 2002. Simms has appeared in five MLS Cup matches, including a 2013 final loss against LA Galaxy. "Clyde's arrival is a great addition to our team," Sporting KC manager and Sporting Director Peter Vermes said. "He's been a staple of the Colorado Rapids since the start of his career and we're happy to welcome him to our organization." Prior to signing with the Rapids in 2002, Simms played for Canadian side Toronto FC, where he helped the club reach the 2000-01 CONCACAF Champions' Cup final. He helped Toronto reach the 2001 Canadian Championship final, where they were defeated by the Vancouver Whitecaps. He made his professional debut at the age of 18, playing a key role as Toronto made it to the MLS Cup in 2000. After a year-long spell with Airdrie United of the Premier Development League, Simms played for Montreal Impact of the USL First Division from 2004 to 2005. Simms was named Rapids captain in 2009 and continued on as a central figure for the Rapids through 2013. He scored 16 goals and added five assists in 160 regular season appearances, as well as one goal and two assists in nine playoff matches.
